From Tank Man to SF Supervisor!

MAKE S.F. SAFE AGAIN!

SOLDIER ON

A Campaign Song by Prof. Brian “TankMan” Zen, CFA

Soldier on, holding on to the dream we share;
Charge forward, I have a dream, TOO.
Even if the firing tanks are rolling in,
I’ll be there to stop the tanks for you.

Chorus: Dream, dream, dream, when I miss you,
all I have to do is to dream of you.
Dream, dream, dream...Dreams we all share.

Holding you, to the end of ALL time.
Don’t cry, I’m still here holding you.
Even if the sky is falling down,
I’ll be there to nurse your wounds for you.

Don’t give up, that dream shall never die;
Don’t let down our ZenWay Bliss Corps.
Even if I lost you in the piles of corpse,
To the stars, hand in hand we fly, we and Bri.
Bri don’t die<sup>3</sup>, hey, Bri never dies, Our Boy Bri...

兵士よ、一緒に夢を信じて
突き進め、僕にも夢があるから
たとえ戦車が来ても

君のために止めに行くよ
君をずっと抱きしめている
泣かないで、そばにいるよ
空が落ちてきても
君のために家を作るよ

あきらめないで、夢は消えない
ZENWAY Bliss Corp を信じて
もし君を失っても
宇宙でも君を抱きしめている

Brian “TankMan” Zen, CFA: From Tiananmen Square to California Dreamer

Prof. Brian Zen is not just an accomplished financial expert and educator—he is a living embodiment of the American Dream, with an impossible life story as dramatic as it is inspiring. Composer of his own campaign song Soldier On, Brian is now setting his sights on becoming a highly talented San Fran Supervisor that East and West have ever co-produced, with a vision forged in extreme adversity and undying hope.

A Journey Like No Other: From TankMan to Congressman

Zen’s journey began in the shadow of the Tiananmen Square protests, fleeing turmoil in China and landing in San Francisco just in time for the 1989 Great Earthquake. Starting anew as a dishwasher, Brian’s hunger for knowledge was as real as his hunger for food—he could often be found chewing financial calculus books mixed with curbside trash food under the streetlights in Sunset and Oakland...

Rising Through the Ranks

Through sheer will and determination, Brian rose from these humble beginnings to become a Bernard Baruch Fellow, a Baker Scholar, and a summa cum laude MBA graduate from Baruch College. He later earned an online Ph.D. from LaSalle University and honed his expertise at Columbia University’s executive program in Graham-Buffett Value Investing. Professionally, Brian climbed from rock bottom to the heights of Wall Street, serving as a portfolio manager at Prudential-Bache Securities and Janney Montgomery Scott, before becoming a Vice President at JPMorgan Chase headquarters. He also shared his knowledge as a graduate-level professor at St. John’s University.

Building Talent, Creating Miracles

Brian’s commitment to discovering and nurturing talents extends beyond his professional life. He has guided both his own children and those of his neighbors to success at elite institutions like Harvard, MIT and Columbia, as well as firms like Goldman Sachs.

A Vision for San Francisco

With his daughter at MIT and his son at Harvard, Brian Zen’s passion now is to give back—sharing his battle-won wisdom on developing talent, seizing opportunities, and achieving the impossible. As an aspiring political candidate, he promises to cut taxes, slash wastes, lower living costs, burn red tapes, unite East and West, inspire the next generation with morality education, and create opportunities for all while making S.F. safe and beautiful again.

Vote for the Zen Master from Tiananmen Square: Stand with the Proof that with grit, vision, and heart, miracles are possible even in Hell—if we soldier on holding on to the dream we share.
